Eric focuses his practice on mergers and acquisitions, securities regulation, and capital markets. His work in the M&A space involves domestic and cross-border M&A, joint venture, private equity, and venture capital transactions, including negotiated mergers, leveraged buyouts, and the acquisition and divestiture of divisions and subsidiaries. He has experience representing issuers and underwriters in public and private offerings and in all aspects of corporate, partnership, and limited liability company law in Ohio and Delaware. He also counsels boards of directors on corporate governance, compliance, fiduciary duty, and executive compensation matters.

He represents clients in a wide range of industries, including financial services, technology, life sciences, consumer products, and manufacturing.

Prior to joining Dinsmore, he worked in the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission's Division of Corporation Finance. He draws on this background to provide guidance on securities and exchange related matters, including compliance, corporate governance, stock exchange listing, and other general corporate matters.
